Dear _____

A spokesman for the Australian defence department said existing legislation allowed interpreters to apply for visas if a government minister certified they were at “at significant risk of harm as a result of their employment or support of Australia’s mission”.

Visa applications must be lodged at an Australian overseas mission, but Australia’s embassy in Baghdad does not accept visa applications.

I call on you to take this urgently to the Ministers for Defence and Immigration, and demand Australia protects those it has put in harm’s way.

Sincerely,
